

Phil Jeffrey Voted #1 Male Vocalist for 2008 at the Sweet & Hot Jazz Music Festival, Labor Day Weekend 2008

Considered "The Finest Combination Jazz Party/Festival in the U.S.," the Sweet & Hot Music Festival celebrated its 13th year at the Los Angeles Marriott Hotel this past Labor Day weekend.

This fun-filled event featured music mostly of the 20s, 30s and 40s, including swing, big band, classic jazz, traditional, blues, New Orleans and Chicago-style jazz. Swing dancing and a myriad of other activities were also featured.

One of the highlights of the festival was the vocalist competition. This year's winner, Phil Jeffrey, wowed the audience with his charm and exquisite vocals. Phil is considered one of L.A.'s hottest talents, appearing at concerts, hotels, casinos, dances, festivals, parties, nightclubs, cruise ships, and countless other venues.

Sweet & Hot Music Festival is pleased to announce that, as this year's #1 male vocalist, Phil Jeffrey will be performing in next year's jazz festival. He will be in the company of such artists as tonight's show band Jack Sheldon, Ernie Andrews, and Herb Jeffries, just to name a few.

Sweet & Hot Jazz Music Festival Highlights

Be sure to check out Phil Jeffrey's upcoming events at www.musiquenoir.com.

- Considered to be the finest combination Jazz Party/Jazz Festival in the USA
- Over 50 of the Brightest and Best All Star Artists performing this music today.
- Extraordinary groups of musicians play a range of musical styles suited to every taste from cowboy swing to blues and red-hot jazz.
- Decade Dances that take you on a trip through "the Past Lanes," makes you want to hop in your jalopy and head for Lover's Lane.
- Special Events offer a smorgasbord of especially tasty pairings guaranteed to whet your musical appetite.